

Strengthening transboundary collaboration, Disaster Risk Reduction capacities & Early Warning Systems in the Western Balkans

Enhanced capacities of national authorities and stakeholders to develop EWS, through improved risk knowledge and data

1

Supporting disaster loss data collection with support of the UN Disaster Tracking System
Implementing real-time data platform to improve hazard forecast and monitoring
Steering EW4ALL Pillar 1 Coordination through EWS gap analyses & EWS roadmap

Improved risk governance through integration of disaster risk reduction and climate change adaptation in decision-making

2

Supporting national coordination mechanisms and integrated planning
Promoting DRR financing and risk-informed investments through DRR budget reviews and development of financing frameworks

Strengthened local capacities through development and implementation of strategic DRR plans empowering communities at risk

3

Building capacities for urban resilience supported by MCR2030 Initiative
Enabling peer-exchanges with MCR2030 Resilience Hubs and DRR champions

September 17, 2025: First project kick-off meeting (Tirana)

BUDGET

4.000.000 EUR

IMPLEMENTING PARTNER

DURATION

36 months

INTERVENTION AREAS

Albania, North Macedonia, Serbia, Kosovo

CHANNEL

Multilateral

DIRECT BENEFICIARIES

Staff of the National Civil Protection Agency of Albania (AKMZ)
Staff of the Emergency Management Sector, Ministry of the Interior, Serbia
Staff of the Protection and Rescue Directorate and the Crisis Management Center, North Macedonia
Technical staff of other relevant entities in Albania, North Macedonia, and Serbia, including meteorological services
Local authorities in selected cities in Albania, North Macedonia, and Serbia